ROBIN SHARMA

is one of the world's top experts on personal and organizational leadership. He is the CEO of Sharma Leadership International Inc., a global training firm which does business in over 55 countries with a proven record for delivering winning results for nearly 15 years. Its clients include many of the best-known companies including Microsoft, Nike, FedEx, IBM, BP, KPMG and GE.

He is one of the superstars of the speaking profession, frequently sharing the stage with individuals such as Bill Clinton, Jack Welch, Ken Blanchard and Dr. Phil. A former litigation lawyer, Robin holds 2 law degrees including a Masters of Law. His work has helped millions of people live their best lives and thousands of organizations get to world-class.

He is in constant demand as a keynote speaker, seminar leader and executive coach for organizations committed to leadership in these times of high velocity change.

Robin Sharma is one of the world's most widely read authors. He is the author of 10 major international bestsellers, including 'The Greatness Guide' and 'The Monk Who Sold His Ferrari'. His books have been published in over 50 countries and in 60 languages and have helped millions of people succeed.

"If you want to be a leader, I have a simple suggestion: Just keep innovating. Innovate at work. Innovate at home. Innovate in your relationships. Innovate in the way you run your life. Innovate in terms of the way you see the world. To become stagnant is to begin to die. Growth, evolution and reinvention sustain life" - Robin Sharma

"Everyone who attended your session was impressed and motivated by what you had to offer. You were able to inject excitement and more than satisfy the expectations of the attendees in explaining the concepts of your leadership lessons. We, in CIMA Malaysia Division, wish to thank you for a great presentation and the clear lessons learnt would certainly help us to make better decisions in the future"

Michael Eow President, CIMA Malaysia Division

"Two of the most valuable days I've ever spent. I would highly recommend this programme"

Mary Phaneuf, Director of Education AstraZeneca

"Your high-energy, multimedia presentation made us laugh, and made us think. Your messages were insightful and on target. Thank you for being such an inspirational and thought provoking keynote speaker. You have set a high standard and raised expectations for our series".

Bill Norman, Vice President - Worldwide Operations, Microsoft

"With respect to your presentation, you should take a private moment to smile at yourself. Many attendees have mentioned to me that they have re-committed themselves to living a better life thanks to your words. People are getting up earlier, keeping journals, taking time to be more polite and setting meaningful goals. Robin, you have made a difference in the lives of the people who attended the conference".

Mark K. Tonneson, Executive VP, Royal Bank of Canada

“ Leadership begins within. Organizational leadership begins with personal leadership. You can't be great at work until you feel great. You can't make someone feel good about themselves until you feel good about yourself. You can't be a source of positive energy if you have no energy. The doorway to success swings outward – not inward ”
